Commander's Message

Hello Comrades:

We have two care packages we would like to send out for troops in harms way.

The first request is for our post member Jeff Payne. The packages to Jeff are for his platoon and we have already sent two of them. As you may recall, he is with the 180 EN. CO. from Powhatan and is stationed in Iraq.

The second request is for a friend of Theresa Willson, who is in Afghanistan with the 276 EN. BN. His name is Sgt. Thomas Cockrell from New Kent County. Tom is a squad leader, so goodies sent to him will be for 12 troops.

Please help fill these two boxes up! Here are the main needs:

White ankle socks	Shampoo
Hand Sanitizer	Dandruff Shampoo
Deodorant	Disposable Razors
Toothpaste	Hand Lotion
Wet Wipes	Pretzels
Beef Jerky

Thank you for your help with this!

Also, nominations for Post Officers start during the March meeting. The nomination period will finish at the April meeting, at which time voting takes place.

I am very sorry to inform you that Comrade Sam Hall's brother, Sgt. Walter T. Hall, recently passed away. He served in Company L, 350th Infantry in Italy from July 26, 1944 until May 2, 1945, receiving three Bronze Stars for Valor and several Purple Hearts. Sgt. Hall was a true American hero and will be missed by all.

Quartermaster's Report

Greetings to you all!

The success of our Post will ride with the wise selection of officers to guide us in the upcoming 2009-2010 year. Now is the time to start thinking about nominations, as the election of next year's officers will soon be on the agenda.

Our Post needs your help in supporting the Canteen. The only source of income our Post has is from contributions, investment income, bingo at the 3th District and funds from the Canteen. The money we receive from dues does not cover the cost of mailing our newsletter. We do not receive many contributions and the funds from bingo are restricted as to how we may use them.

I will give a detailed report at the March meeting explaining the funding of our Post.

Welcome our five newest members:

Charles Hubbard
Michael Anderson
Randall Francis
Andrew Tutka
Jason Cottrell.

We're glad you're here!
